

National Marble Company Monument
Greensboro Patriot Weekly; July 1, 1903;
pg. 1

The monument donated by the National Marble Company, Cherokee, N. C., and Canton, Ga., T. M. Brady, proprietor, has arrived in the city and will be unveiled Saturday. Major Morehead was greatly relieved over its safe arrival, as he was afraid it might not be brought here on time. The Southern Railway hurried up its shipment by every possible means.
