at that time I went to bed—

Feb 16th Sunday 1851

I dressed, went to breakfast, returned and read until church time in the Spy Dr Wheat preached - In the evening I went to recitation on the Bible was not taken up - After Supper I went to the P. Office and found in my box two letters. One was from Lee the other from Mr Bailey - Lee says he has an idea of quitting school and going to the Saddling Trade - I don't much admire the selection which he had in trade, he had better go on to school - Mr Bailey wrote a good deal but nothing of importance yet his letters as usual was quite interesting - I did not go to church to night but staid in my room to read the Spy. I read until nearly eleven o'clock but did not quite finish it -

This evening Bernard Gratter came back to College - I hope he will remain now and learn off his drinking &c He is a very smart young man indeed - —
